NJFC's 39th Annual Clearwater Festival at Long Branch, NJ – September 2014

Pete Seeger
1919-2014

What Would Pete Do?

New Jersey Friends of Clearwater

New Jersey's Oldest & Largest Environmental Music Festival

President's Message

Welcome to New Jersey Friends of Clearwater's 39th Annual Clearwater Festival in the City of Long Branch. Earlier this year we lost Clearwater's founder and conscience, Pete Seeger, the beloved folksinger and advocate. Our Festival will be dedicated as a Tribute to the man, his message, and his creations. Our theme is "What Would Pete Do?" is a time-honored litmus test for environmental and social justice issues.

I was truly saddened when I was informed of his death just before midnight on January 27. I will mourn the passing of this man--this giant, my friend--Pete Seeger. If ever there was a life well-lived and exemplary, it was Pete Seeger's. He was a true leader, a courageous activist, and steadfast friend. He was a mentor, source of support and inspiration to me and to so many people. However, it is not enough just to mourn Pete, we all need to embody his spirit and values in solving the challenges ahead of us.

Pete always thought of himself as modern day Johnny Appleseed. Instead of a sack of apple seeds, his brain had held thousands of ideas that he spread proverbially: spread them out to many, would watch for those that took root in fertile minds, and tended those with advice and care. Cleaning the River and the global environment, creating our Sloop Clearwater to be the symbol of that fight, and the creation of Sloop Clubs—NJFC among them—to embody his mantra of Think Globally, Act Locally are a significant but small number of his ideas that helped change the world.

Another of Pete's seeds was to combine finest in folk, rock, blues, gospel, and children's music with environmental education and activism to get the message across in a way no other media can. An annual tradition since 1975, the free Clearwater Festival is known for its mix of live music, arts and environmental education and advocacy in a family-friendly (late) summer party. NJ Clearwater has spent the last 40 years teaching the lessons of clean, clear water and stewardship of our waterways, hence our name. This year, our 30+ musical acts will pay Tribute by performing at least one of Pete's many songs in their own style on each of our 3 beachfront stages. Our location right on the Great Lawn is the perfect spot for NJFC's message of respect for natural resources.

The number one issue on our planet is Climate Change. It takes so many forms. Please visit our NJ Friends of Clearwater environmental educators, activists, and their displays to learn more about how you as an individual, group, town, and state can make a difference in the fight against human-caused climate change. This year we are spreading the word and helping organize the People's Climate March (PCM) to be held next week, Sunday September 21 in NYC. Tens of thousands of people from across the country will be arriving aboard trains, planes and automobiles. The PCM will unambiguously and emphatically inform the UN officials that the nation wants UN action to fight CC. We have invited fellow NJ PCM organizers to quickly speak from our stages and participate in an open public forum entitled the PCM Roundtable, located adjacent to the Clearwater displays. This Roundtable will follow our annual Environmental Justice Roundtable. Also visit our guest PCM and all activists' booths for more information.

Visit our Clearwater environmental displays, our sailboat, and join our great group at our membership booth. Enjoy the many talented performers on 3 stages. Join in at our open-mike Circle of Song. Visit our artist & crafter area. The goal of our festival is for every person attending to walk away with a greater understanding of, and commitment to, environmental stewardship. Thank you all for coming out and showing your support for a healthier environment.

New Jersey Friend's of Clearwater (NJFC) Traveling Environmental Festival (TEF) is our key educational tool for children of all ages, first presented in 1994.

TEF brings the hands-on stations to the classroom and youth organizations enabling NJFC to reach a broad audience all year round. It is a self-contained, educational classroom that can be set up in an auditorium, classroom, or outdoor venue.

The TEF is comprised of its Introduction, its five stations, and Closing. The stations presented as well as the timeframe of the engagement can be tailored to suit the targeted topic, audience, and the available teaching resources.

THE ENVIRONMENTAL SAIL PROGRAM

The Environmental Sail Program (ESP) and its garvey will continue its unbroken record of being on the water every summer from 1986 and into the future. Our Tuckerton Garvey Adam Hyler was retired after last season and was donated and delivered to Tuckerton Seaport and Baymen Museum, Tuckerton, NJ on March 30, 2014. Upon delivery, Paul Hart, Exec Director declared, "We are proud to be the new home for the Adam Hyler. Thank you and all the wonderful folks who have worked so hard to make people aware of their role in the stewardship of our world."

Its replacement, Pete's Banjo was designed, constructed over the past 9 months, and will premiere at the 39th Annual NJ Clearwater Festival. While the Adam Hyler was a true replica of the centuries' old design and original plank-caulk hull build techniques, the 26 foot Pete's Banjo will follow the design but has been built with modern techniques including fiberglassing the hull to be more maintainable and seaworthy in its role as keystone of our ESP which includes being the flagship for Navesink Sea Scout Ship #5.

The original garveys, used for clamming and oystering because of their shallow draft, were built there before the American Revolution. Its design allow NJ Clearwater sailors and captains to perform ESP initiatives with ease: 1) Sail Training and Sailing, Lots of Sailing on the Tidal Rivers and Bays of NJ; 2) Navesink Sea Scout Ship #5; 3) River Rangers and Boat Building; 4) Water Testing and Observation; 5) Nature Tours and Birding; and, 6) Oyster Bed Creation and Maintenance. For more information, please click: <http://www.njclearwater.org/esp.php>. These initiatives are being done in full partnership with the Navesink Maritime Heritage Association whose mission includes Wooden Boat History and Building.

Keep an eye out for the announcement of the launching of the Pete's Banjo soon after the Festival. Come sail, have fun, and learn more about the ESP where you see the Red Sails on the Promenade.
