Route 35 South: Follow the jughandle (on right) to take a left onto Broad Street – find Library. If you reach the entrance of Fort Monmouth (on Route 35), you've gone too far – make a U-Turn – then follow 35 North instructions.

Route 195 East: Turn right on Route 18 or continue to Route 35 North – follow those directions.

If you come from NYC: Ask the Academy Bus Driver to stop at the above address.

As usual, we will have a Featured Leader-Performer(s). Ingrid Heldt and Isis Ra, the organizers, will also participate, and so can you: Similarly to the Circle of Song Stage at our NJ Friends of Clearwater Festivals, there will be opportunities for audience members to take a turn or two to play – or to sing along – please bring your instrument. But if you wish, just come and listen.

We encourage songs about the environment and sing-along songs, but you can do or request others.

The suggested donation of $3-$7 is still split between NJ Friends of Clearwater's free Annual Festival (our 43rd in 2018) and Pastor Sony's work on behalf of the homeless and the hungry in Asbury Park.

Our Leader-Performer for March 3 will be Rob Lincoln

Rob Lincoln is a singer-songwriter from southern New Jersey who, in 2014, released his debut 2-disk solo album "5 Cents A Song," the longest debut recording ever released by an artist, with 300 original songs spanning 30+ years of songwriting. Lincoln's lyrics tend to be from a variety of unusual perspectives and they can be funny or sad. His musical style ranges from finger-picking folk to psychedelia and garage rock. In the past few years, other performers have added his songs to their repertoire and recordings, and his political songs have been added to the international website www.antiwarsongs.org. Lincoln is also the founder of two long-running songwriter events: the Philadelphia Area Songwriters Alliance Summer Songfest and the PASA Houseconcert Series. He can be found at <http://www.cdbaby.com/cd/roblincoln>.
