

Flowers

Everybody loves – flowers.
Everybody gives – flowers.
Everybody smiles – at flowers.
They're a gift to everyone – a gift to everyone – everyone –

Flowers in a garden, flowers in a pot,
Found in a bouquet or a parking lot.
Flowers made of silk add a style.
Even made of plastics – flowers make us smile.

Flowers in blossom, flowers that died,
Flowers that lift us when we cried.
Flowers inspire, make us shine,
Decorate the table when we dine.

Everybody loves – flowers.
Everybody gives – flowers.
Everybody smiles – at flowers.
They're a gift to everyone – a gift to everyone – everyone –

Flowers at birth and when we die,
Flowers with honey make bees fly.
Flowers we love, flowers we give.
We can even eat them – flowers make us live.

They're masterpieces we can paint.
Flowers are medicine when we're faint.
Flowers have a fragrance sure to please,
Even when they're high up in the trees.

Everybody loves – flowers.
Everybody gives – flowers.
Everybody smiles – at flowers.
They're a gift to everyone – a gift to everyone – everyone –

*Flowers can teach us turn to the sun.
Flowers can reach us when all else is gone.
Flowers can show us how to make Peace.
When they decorate – a gun – a gun !*

Everybody loves – flowers.
Everybody gives – flowers.
Everybody smiles – at flowers.
They're a gift to everyone– a gift to everyone – everyone –

Everybody loves – flowers.
Everybody gives – flowers.
Everybody smiles – at flowers.

They're a gift to everyone– a gift to everyone –